

ZIPLINE GUIDE

Treetop Flyers is looking to hire a dynamic set of individuals who are ready to embark on an opportunity that promises to be as rewarding as the experience they will be providing guests.

Guides with Treetop Flyers must be passionate about providing visitors with a unique and memorable zipline experience that exceeds expectations. As a guide you will be responsible for highlighting the natural beauty of the Chase Canyon area as well as providing a narrative for the rich history and culture of the region.

Being a guide with Treetop Flyers means your approach to safety must be unwavering. You will be responsible for the well the being of guests and team members, and will be counted on to uphold the culture of safety that Treetop Flyers holds paramount. As an environmentally responsible company, you will also be counted on to be a steward of the land we are operating on. Our commitment to upholding the natural beauty of the area must also be your commitment.

Your exceptional communication skills, creativity, and enthusiasm will be put to good use as you lead groups through three breath taking ziplines, inspiring confidence and focusing on each guests individual needs. As a guide you will have the freedom to shape each experience, and will be encouraged to let your personality shine.

As a new company, you will have an excellent opportunity to help shape the future of Treetop Flyers. Your input will be encouraged, your ideas will be valued, and the only thing holding you back is your own motivation.
